British Values at Staghills Nursery School

How we promote British Values in our Setting

Democracy

How we promote democracy in the setting

- Open door Policy for parents and children.

- We develop children's critical thinking skills and support them to lead their own leaning

- Children make choices about where they play in the continuous provision and whether they go inside or outside

- Children's interests are developed through inquiry groups and the environment is modified to reflect their interests and learning styles.

- Children develop their own friendships.

- Children are supported to be curious and independent learners.

- Children listen to each other and learn to take turns.

Rule of Law

How we promote the Rule of Law in our Setting

A behaviour and Relationship Policy is in place

Children understand the rules and regularly discuss them at Family Group times

A good routine supports the children

Staff are consistent and fair with children

Interventions and targeted support ensures all children get the right support.

Adults are good role models

All staff have high expectations of children

Staff praise and reinforce positive behaviour

Mutual Respect

How We Promote British Values in our Setting

Listening to each other
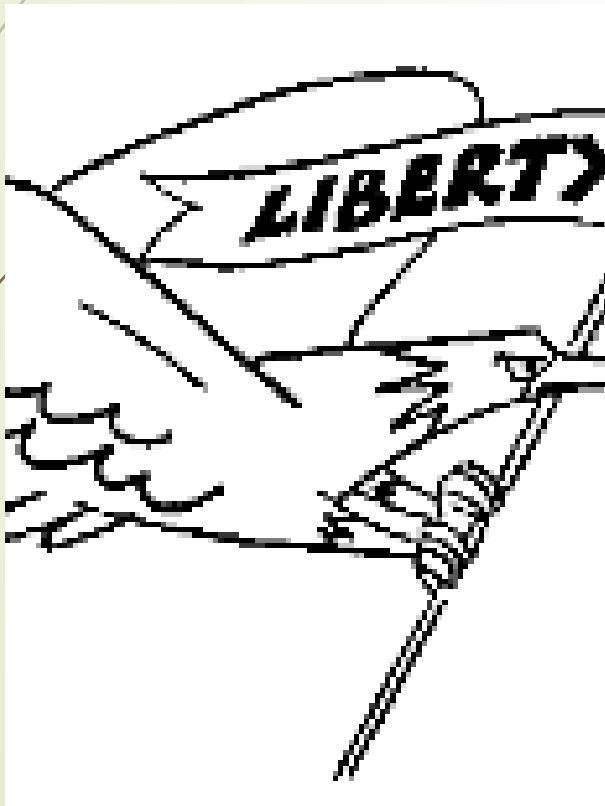

Respecting each others opinions

By caring for each other and showing empathy to each other

Managing feelings and behaviour

Respecting different points of view

Planning is built on individual interests.

Individual Liberty

Valuing each child as an individual

Building on and developing learning by being attuned to children's fascination's and lines of inquiry

Celebrating the unique way that individuals learn

Supporting independent learning and thinking

Making choices about the places we prefer to learn in

Tolerance of those with different faiths

How we promote British Values at our setting

Celebrating a range of cultures through festivals and discussion

Visits within the local community

Stories and information books